Welcome Home

Inviting others into the family of Christ, and leading those people to grow in their walk with Him and in participation with His body, are foundational to what the church is all about. This study looks at several principles from Scripture that move the church family to be a group that clearly and authentically communicates, “We’re glad you’re here.”

Michael Kelley is the Director of Groups Ministry at LifeWay Christian Resources.

How to Pray

Twelve men walked closely with Jesus during His earthly ministry. Of all the things they saw Him do—teaching, preaching, performing miracles, and so forth—they only asked to learn one thing from Him: “Teach us to pray” (Luke 11:1). Jesus gave us a pattern to follow—a Model Prayer—that moves prayer from some rote, religious practice to a deeper fellowship with our loving Father who works on our behalf.

Kie Bowman is the senior pastor of the multi-site Hyde Park Baptist Church in Austin, Texas.

Coming Next Quarter

The Full Picture of Christmas looks at the birth of Christ from the perspective of different people in Scripture. The study is written by Cliff Lea, senior pastor of First Baptist Church, Leesburg, Florida.

Engaging Culture in an Ever-Changing World examines several areas of life where the world seeks to redefine truth, ethics, and morality. Grant Ethridge, senior pastor of Liberty Baptist Church in Hampton Roads, Virginia, leads us to examine these issues in light of God’s unchanging truth.
